

MANAGING THE HOME AS AN ASSET – ONE FAMILY’S PLAN

PROPOSED ROLE OF CAREGIVER RESOURCE HUB – SUPPORTING ONE FAMILY’S PLAN

Acts in the role of trusted natural supports, when the caregiver is gone or is no longer able to provide the required care, to the family members living with mental illness and/or developmental disabilities to ensure continuity of access to trusted and reliable advice and guidance in addressing a range of housing concerns from providing for personal supports to legal, financial planning and property management services

OPTION	PERSONAL SUPPORTS	FINANCIAL SUSTAINABILITY	PROPERTY MANAGEMENT
Home as an Asset of a Henson Trust	Case management – On-going supports and services Provide for wellness checks, social and community connections, leisure and recreation programs, psychoeducation, system navigation Case management – Crisis stabilization Making the 911 call – assist my family member in preparation of emergency response plan Emergency Room, Hospitalization – assist my family member in understanding need for a mental health assessment, the diagnosis and the treatment plan Hospitalization - being there during illness to address concerns and offer support including visits to health care professionals and sometimes, visits to the hospital Hospitalization and discharge planning - support to my family member on discharge from psychiatric hospitalization and help him/her integrate back into the community by developing goals and accessing the proper supports and services Contact with the Law - support to divert my family member from the justice system toward mental health court and services in the community	Assist family member in accessing links established by caregivers with financial, legal and accounting services including an annual review of financial situation Assist family member in accessing financial and legal arrangements put in place by caregivers to fund both current and long-term expenses while ensuring the appropriate controls are in place to protect the family members Assist family member in understanding provisions of caregiver estate instructions related to establishing appropriate banking arrangements; the purchase of insurance products such as segregated funds and annuities including the possibility of managing life insurance benefits	Support family member in implementing arrangements made by the caregivers for housing that is both safe and where their family members would choose to live In accordance with estate instructions regarding property management including establishing a property management fund, assist family member in arranging for property management services If required, support family member in securing the services of a real estate firm and managing the sale of the home and arranging for alternative living arrangements.